

CITY OF STAYTON

MEMORANDUM

TO: Mayor Porter and the Stayton City Council

FROM: Janna Moser - Library Director

DATE: November 21, 2022

SUBJECT: October Library report

In October, over 80 people joined Jennifer, Nicole, and Rachel for a special Harvest Storytime at Green Bridge Gardens. Afterwards, we gave out free books to all the children with funding from our Oregon Community Foundation Summer Learning grant, and families got an opportunity to explore the farm. Jefferson Public Library also collaborated. Stephanie held our third annual Painted Pumpkin Contest. Twenty-two pumpkins painted like book characters were entered, and 168 people cast ballots for their favorites. This year's winners painted pumpkins inspired by Star the Pegasus from Guardian Herd and Narwhal & Jelly.

Library staff had 398 people join us on Halloween for family-friendly, spooky tours of our Haunted Library. The event would not have been possible without our fantastic Library crew and amazing volunteers! Jennifer and Janna provided tours and stories for Stayton Elementary School's Second Grade walking field trip. Over 60 children and parents made slime at our drop-in Maker Lab. Teens had an interactive showing of Hocus Pocus and turned beanies into Zombeanies. Adult Book club met to discuss Anxious People by Frederick Backman, and adults and teens repurposed books into book pumpkins.

The Stayton Friends of the Library made $5,381 at their annual book sale. We are so grateful for the incredible work and dedication of our Friends of the Library and celebrated them from October 16-22, 2022, during National Friends of Libraries Week. The Friends raise money through book sales, The Used Book Store, monetary donations, and membership dues, providing resources for additional Library programming and equipment, vital support for our all-ages summer reading programs, and special events throughout the year.
