Stayton Library Presents Oregon Author

Karen Karbo

Thursday, March 23, 2017

The Stayton Public Library is excited to announce a visit featuring author Karen Karbo on Thursday, January 19, 2017 at 7:00 pm in the E. G. Siegmund Meeting Room. There will be a reception accompanying the event.

Karen Karbo is the author of multiple award-winning novels, memoirs and works of non-fiction. Recently, she was one of 24 authors selected for the inaugural Amtrak Residency. Her next book, In Praise of Difficult Women is forthcoming in 2018. Her best-selling “Kick-

Ass Women” series includes Julia Child Rules: Lessons on Savoring Life (2013); How Georgia Became O'Keeffe: Lessons on the Art of Living (2011); The Gospel According to Coco Chanel: Life Lessons from the World's Most Elegant Woman (2009), which was an international best-seller; and How to Hepburn: Lessons on Living from Kate the Great (2007), hailed by the Philadelphia Inquirer as “an exuberant celebration of a great original.” Karen grew up in Los Angeles California and lives in Portland, Oregon.

More information about Karen is available on her website:

The Stayton Public Library's speaking events for 2017 are made possible, in part, by funding from the Marion County Cultural Corporation and the Stayton Friends of the Library.

Everything I Never Told You

By Celeste Ng

Lydia is the favorite child of Marilyn and James Lee; their middle daughter, a girl who inherited her mother's bright blue eyes and her father's jet-black hair. Her parents are determined that Lydia will fulfill the dreams they were unable to pursue.

When Lydia's body is found in the local lake, the delicate balancing act that has been keeping the Lee family together tumbles into chaos, forcing them to confront the long-kept secrets that have been slowly pulling them apart. Lydia's older brother, Nathan, is certain that the neighborhood bad boy Jack is somehow involved. But it's the youngest of the family--Hannah--who observes far more than anyone realizes and who may be the only one who knows the truth about what happened.
