Author & Photographer Tim Palmer

Thursday, November 15, 7:00 pm

The Stayton Public Library is excited to announce a presentation featuring award winning author and photographer Tim Palmer on Thursday, November 15, 2018 at 7:00 pm in the E. G. Siegmund Meeting Room. There will be a reception accompanying the event.

Palmer will present a slide show based on his book, Wild and Scenic Rivers: An American Legacy, published in 2017 by Oregon State University Press. His program presents an illuminating portrait of the world's premier system for the protection of natural rivers.

Tim Palmer is the author and photographer of 26 books about rivers, the environment, and adventure travel. As a writer, citizen conservationist, and environmental planner he has been involved in the Wild and Scenic Rivers system almost since its founding. See his work at www.timpalmer.org.

Oregon Poet Laureate Kim Stafford

Thursday, November 29, 7:00 pm

The Stayton Public Library and "Salem for All!" is excited to announce a visit and reading with Oregon Poet Laureate Kim Stafford on Thursday, November 29, 2018 at 7:00 pm in the E. G. Siegmund Meeting Room. There will be a reception accompanying the event.

Kim Stafford is an Oregon writer and teacher who has published books about his poet father, his brother's suicide, nine books of poetry, and essays about resonant landscapes of the Pacific Northwest. He is the founding director of the Northwest Writing Institute, a zone for exploratory writing, and he co-founded the Fishtrap Writers Gathering in Wallowa County in 1987. In 2018 Gov. Kate Brown selected him as Oregon's ninth Poet Laureate to travel the state witnessing for poetry, succeeding Elizabeth Woody. He views the practice of writing as a fundamental doorway to happiness and discovery, and travels to witness for this process.
