Stayton Reads: Frankenstein with Collette Tennant Thursday, May 16, 7:00 pm

Collette Tennant, English Professor from Corban University, will be presenting "Approaching Frankenstein through the lens of Mary Shelley's Gothic biography" on Thursday, May 16 at 7:00 pm.

Collette Tennant has a Ph.D. in English from Ohio State University. She is currently a Professor of English at Corban University where she has taught for twenty-four years. She has published two books of poetry, Commotion of Wings (2010) and Eden and After (2015). She has just completed a book on Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale. It will be released in September 2019.

This program is part of Stayton Reads, presented by the Stayton Public Library Foundation. There will be a reception following the talk. Free, no registration necessary.

Kathleen Dean Moore Thursday, May 23, 7:00 pm

The Stayton Public Library is excited to welcome Kathleen Dean Moore on Thursday, May 23 at 7:00 pm in the E.G. Siegmund Meeting Room.

Kathleen Dean Moore is the author of numerous award winning environmental books including Great tide rising: towards clarity and moral courage in a time of planetary change. She was awarded the Sigurd Olson Nature writing award for Holdfast: A Home in the Natural World. She holds a Ph.D. from the University of Colorado. As Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at Oregon State University, she taught critical thinking and environmental ethics, and co-founded the Spring Creek Project for Ideas, Nature, and the Written Word.

This event is sponsored in part by the Stayton Friends of the Library and the Marion County Cultural Corporation.
