The Candymakers

by Wendy Mass

When four twelve-year-olds, including Logan, who has grown up never leaving his parents' Life Is Sweet candy factory, compete in the Confectionary Association's annual contest, they unexpectedly become friends and uncover secrets about themselves during the process.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Logan, Miles, Daisy and Philip all experienced life-changing events in their past. Imagine yourself as one of these characters... How do you think you would react if what happened to them happened to you?

Which character do you think is most like you? Why?

Consider this quote from the story:

"Some people have scars on the inside and other people's are on the outside."

How could someone have scars on the inside? How could those kinds of scars heal?

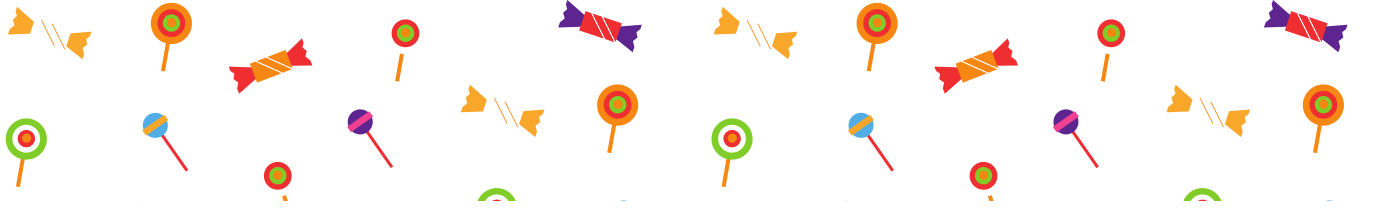

Do you think you would like to live in a candy factory? Why or why not?

Special thanks to the Newport
Candy Shoppe for the delightful
