Modifications and extensions

For a younger crowd...

Process Art is all about the process, not the product. This activity lends itself to all sorts of adaptations as children explore what they can do with materials provided.

For more advanced learners...

Try to make a specific character or follow a theme of your choice! The possibilities are endless...!

Exploring the possibilities of color, texture and form is the work of an artist. These skills are incorporated into many occupations including

Make-up Artist

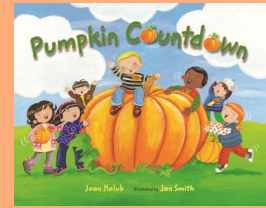

"A career as a makeup artist may be ideal for an artistic individual who wants to do special effects and prosthetics for film, theater, or television, or to improve someone's appearance. Most makeup artists complete a cosmetology or related program."
